

Derby Hotels Collection will participate in the 34th International Tourism Trade Fair FITUR

The Spanish hotel group Derby Hotels Collection presents its new services at the International Tourism Trade Fair (FITUR), 10F16 stand, from 22 to 26 January in Madrid.

This International Tourism Trade Fair, FITUR includes, for this 34th edition, 9500 companies from 165 countries around the world. 200,000 visitors are expected.

On this occasion, Derby Hotels Collection will present to the international media its new brand of touristic apartments: Barcelona Apartment. Located in the city center, these apartments can accommodate from two to six people and offer a variety of options that ensure independence and privacy

This trade Fair also marks the 10th anniversary of The Caesar Hotel, in London. This is part of the Derby group since its acquisition in August 2013.
