Barcelona getaway – Hotel Claris

One of Barcelona's most emblematic hotels, Hotel Claris occupies a neoclassical 19th-century palace in one of the most fashionable parts of the city centre, just a hundred metres from Passeig de Gràcia. A building that brings together luxury, art and culture.

Thanks to the services it provides, its elegant interior design, the works of art it houses and its location, the Claris is a special place, perfect for a romantic getaway in Barcelona.

Madrid getaway - Hotel Urban

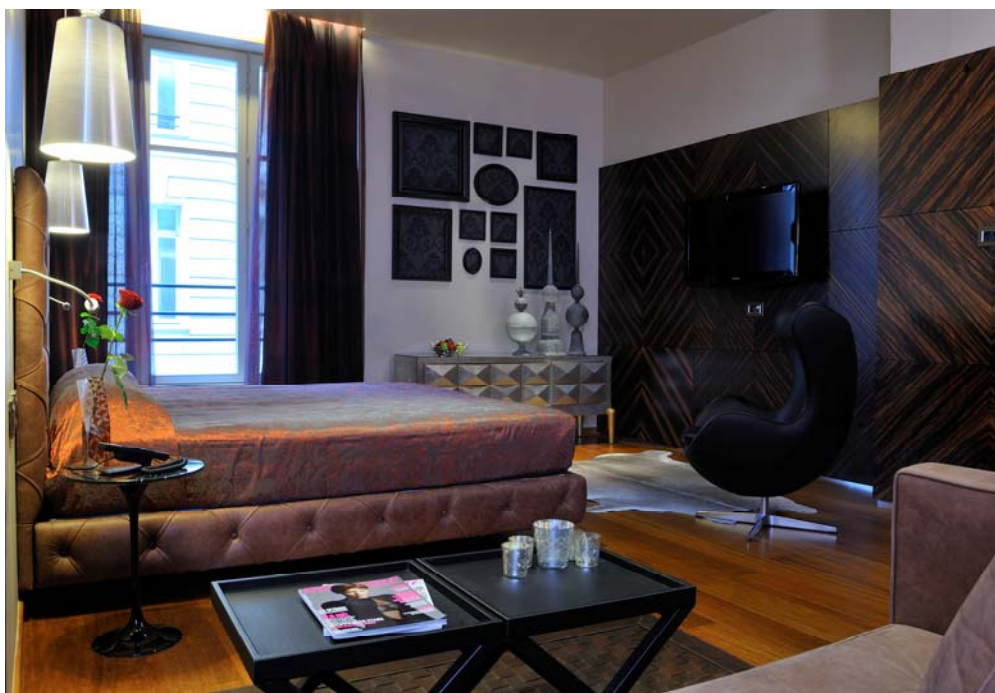

Hotel Urban in Madrid is synonymous with modernity, avant-garde, luxury and culture. Its suites offer magnificent views and luxurious elegance: tropical Wenge wood, Guatemalan green marble, Trent mosaics and leather headboards.

A 'boutique hotel' with an unrepeatabe character of its own in a unique location. Between the Museo del Prado, the Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum and the Queen Sofía Foundation, Hotel Urban is undoubtedly a special place to surprise your loved-one on Valentine's Day.

Paris getaway – Hotel Banke

The Banke is housed in an impressive early 20th-century building that was once a bank in the Opéra district of Paris. Formidable and majestic it is right in the heart of the city of love: just metres from Boulevard Haussmann and Galeries Lafayette, it has views of Sacré Cœur and an authentic Parisian atmosphere, if Saint Valentine lets us out of the hotel for a stroll through the city of light.

London getaway - The Caesar

Situated on a quiet residential street in a recently refurbished typical Victorian building stands The Caesar, a stone's throw from Hyde Park, Marble Arch and Portobello Road, a peaceful area with splendid views of Queen's Gardens. This hotel combines classical art, such as a collection of Roman mosaics and animal and plant motifs. The perfect place from which to explore this capital city and spend Valentine's Day in an intimate atmosphere.
